

Doing Business In China

One-day inter-cultural awareness business seminar

Wednesday 14th January 2009, America Square Conference Centre, EC3N 2LB, 09:00 - 17:00

China is vast, complex and rapidly changing. It is one of the great economic success stories of the past quarter-century. GDP growth has averaged at more than 9% per year during this period with an estimate of 10.4% recorded for 2007.

As China's economy continues to expand and develop, the demand for energy resources, infrastructure, technology and goods and services is growing exponentially.

Are you thinking about entering Chinese markets but feel apprehensive about how to communicate effectively? Learn about cultural and linguistic nuances of doing business in China and acquire practical tools for recognising culturally sensitive issues, and learn how to apply these tools to business.

This seminar is designed to help delegates feel more confident, positive and less anxious in diverse cultural communications and environments.

The seminar also includes an introduction to UKTI's Export Communications Review (ECR). The ECR service is delivered by an accredited export communications consultant and offers new and inexperienced UK-based exporters an indepth, tailored appraisal of how they are communicating with overseas markets and explains how to communicate more effectively in order to handle their overseas inquiries more efficiently and approach new markets with confidence. This is priced at £500+VAT however UKTI offer subsidy of £350 to eligible companies.*
