

Want to give even better customer service to international visitors?

This is the course your business needs.

London receives 13 million international visitors every single year, spending billions of pounds at hotels, in restaurants, on the high street, at tourist attractions and on transport. 'Welcoming the World' is an exciting new initiative aimed at businesses who want to make the most of this huge opportunity.

Are you getting your share of their business?

With the 2012 Games coming up, numbers of visitors to London are going to increase even more. You and your staff will not have the same cultural background as many overseas customers – and you won't always speak the same language. This course will help you and your customer service team to understand cultural differences and improve the way you communicate – increasing your sales and repeat business.

Do your frontline staff really speak your customer's language?

We can't make you and your staff fluent in every language that every visitor to London speaks. But we will help you learn useful phrases for key groups of customers, so you can go that extra mile. Our course gives every participant a free phrasebook and links to cultural briefings on 11 countries – plus targeted cultural and language training on India and China.

Interested?

Our course takes place on 11 February 2009 between 09:30 and 16:30 at the Preview Centre. Read on to find out more and register places for you and your team NOW!

About the course

Our one-day course is aimed at owners and employees of businesses in the hospitality, tourism, transport, retail or leisure industries and is free of charge for eligible London residents.

Venue: Preview Centre, East Parkside, Greenwich Peninsula, London SE10 0JF

Date: 11 February 2009

Session one 9.30 – 11.10	Introduction The challenges and cultural differences The impact on customer service
Break
Session two 11.30 – 12.30	Culture and language session one India and Hindi
Lunch
Session three 13.30 – 14.30	Culture and language session two China and Mandarin Chinese
Break
Session four 14.50 – 16.30	Effective communications Top tips Action plan

Yours to keep ...

- A workbook for the one-day course
- A phrasebook with customer service phrases in twelve languages

Book your place now!

To reserve your free place, contact Sally King on:

- info@rln-london.com or on 075158 50271
- Or download a registration form directly at www.rln-london.com/pdf/genericreg.doc

Find out more about Regional Language Network London and the Welcoming the World initiative at www.rln-london.com/welcoming